

You Are Invited to Play

Are you ready to play a Bigger Game in Life?

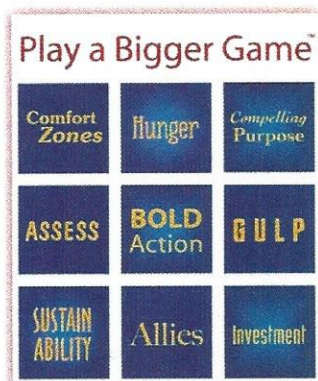

Do you have a deep hunger for a life and work with more meaning?

Are you ready to express yourself in a more aligned and powerful way?

Or is it simply time for a change?

If you are ready, experience the Bigger Game with Katherine Bock and Geri England, certified Bigger Game Trainers on September 24-25 in the DFW, Texas area.

The Bigger Game Experience is an experiential 2-Day workshop.

The Bigger Game is a simple process based on the concept of a board game. Those who play The Bigger Game say it helps them satiate their hunger for fulfillment while allowing them to serve a higher purpose and to find deeper meaning.

This training is highly interactive and includes a combination of theory, experiential exercises, one-on-one conversations, small group interactions and inspirational video Bigger Game examples.

When you play a Bigger Game, you create a life that is engaging and inspiring. This process enables you never to feel stuck again. It will inspire you to keep stretching and thriving above beyond limitations holding you back. You get to reinvent your life.

Outcomes:

- Move from stuck to action
- Develop a new relationship with passion, purpose, commitment and action
- Learn the Bigger Game philosophy, concepts and methodology
- Discover your compelling purpose — what you are about!
- Create a “doing/action” plan to make your Bigger Game a reality
- Identify allies to keep you in action

The Bigger Game has proved to be life changing for players around the world, and if you truly embrace the Game Board, it will be life changing for you also.

Dates: Sept. 24-25, 2016 Location: Element Hotel (www.elementdfwnorth.com) Irving, TX

To register: <http://www.careertalentcoaching.com/workshop/biggergame>

 ICF CEUs: 15.25

Workshop Tuition (includes all materials) $497. Bring a friend for half price.

Sign up by Sept. 1, 2016 and save $100

“Sometimes, I need a jump start on how to move my dreams and goals into action...The Bigger Game was one of the most valuable workshops I’ve attended yet! The Bigger Game board is a logical and realistic way to view life, both personally and professionally. I use it each day as a snapshot of where I am and where I want to move next.” Carolyn Lee Jones, Professional Jazz Singer

Katherine Bock focuses on career management and leadership development coaching. Her mission is to maximize the potential of individuals and companies by using a strengths-based approach. Successful professionals worldwide can accelerate their success by participating in her coaching programs. Her Bigger Game is to inspire clients to be their best selves--to become who they are at their very best, doing what they love and making a difference in their world.
www.careertalentcoaching.com katherine@careertalentcoaching.com

Geri England works with leaders and teams on organization and leadership development, culture change and change management. She uses the power of Appreciative Inquiry and storytelling to help individuals and teams identify their strengths and leverage their stories of success to create a more positive future and greater engagement. Her Bigger Game is to inspire, educate and transform lives through the power of their stories so they can make a difference doing what they love. www.geriengland.com geri.eng@gmail.com

“In our often hectic and busy lives, it is easy to get pulled away from the things that are most important to us. The Bigger Game is a framework for living that helped me identify and focus on what I want in life. There was something magical about standing on the game board that helped me to see the bigger picture and realize that in order to grow, we need to move out of our comfort zones and utilize our unique strengths. I was most inspired by the real life examples in this workshop, which illustrate how one person’s actions can benefit the world as a whole.” Catherine Woodruff, Chief Investment Officer and Brand Strategist.